Beware of Service Scams

The Canadian Anti-Fraud Centre is warning citizens to beware of service scams where the fraudster calls and claims to be from an internet, cable, or cellphone service provider. They offer a deal that's too good to be true.

The fraudsters proceed to ask for the victim's personal information including their Social Insurance Number and Driver's License number.

They will then:

- Use your personal information for identity fraud
- Order a cellphone using your identity
- Order a cellphone and have it shipped to the victim but then tell you it was the wrong cellphone and you need to ship it back to the criminal's address

If you get a call from your service provider, tell them that you will call them back and end the call. Look up the legitimate phone number for the company and communicate with them directly by always making the outgoing call.

Protect yourself. Do not give out personal information such as your address, birth date, Social Insurance Number, credit card, or banking information.

Report a scam to the Canadian Anti-Fraud Centre at 1-888-495-8501 or online at antifraudcentre-centreantifraude.ca

If you have been a victim of a scam or fraud, please contact the Three Hills RCMP at 403-443-5538.

Recreational Vehicle Storage

Section 5.8 of Delburne's Land Use Bylaw No. 1190/2023 requires that recreational vehicles, motor homes, campers, and boats be stored properly.

They must be parked no closer to the property line than 1.5 metres. They must be parked in the driveway and not on the street. Alternatively, they can be stored in the rear yard or on the side yard equal to or not going passed the front of the house.

Recreational vehicles parked in a Residential District may be used for living and sleeping accommodation only by bona fide tourists for a period of no longer than 1 week, up to a maximum of 30 days per year.

Did you know that leaks or changes in use can increase your water consumption more than you think?

Changes in your home such as house guests or a new water-intensive appliance like a water softener can increase your monthly consumption. A leaky toilet or faucet that is left unfixed can waste a lot of water. Toilets are a common cause of water leaks because of a broken or stuck flapper. A leaky toilet can use up to 20 cubic metres of water a day.

Help conserve water and save on your utility bill by monitoring your home for leaks.

Meet Your Delburne Council Candidates

Delburne residents will be electing 5 Councillors on October 20th. There are 9 candidates running to have a seat on Delburne Council.

Listed in alphabetical order by last name, the candidates are:

Jeff Bourne, James Ellis, Kathy Faulk, Andy Folks, Dustin Gillespie, Trenton Martens, Luc Prefontaine, Jason Reckseidler, and Ray Reckseidler.

Hello neighbours, let me introduce myself to those I haven't yet met. My name is Jeff Bourne, and I am running to be re-elected in the upcoming election October 20th. My wife and I have lived and raised our family in Delburne since 1995.

I am very proud of the growth in the community in the last 10 years. I look forward to continuing to create an environment in Delburne that attracts people and businesses while meeting the mandate of the people. Our outgoing Mayor coined it best, "Your Success is Our Success"- our Village motto!!

Get out and vote October 20th. Jeff Bourne Councillor, Village of Delburne

Hello, I am introducing myself as I am running for Council in the Village of Delburne. My name is James (Jim) Ellis. I am a husband, father and grandfather, having lived in Delburne for 24 years and currently owner/operator of Need a Hand Services. My education and professional background consists of:

- Conflict Resolution Management Certification (U of C)
- Former Red Deer Provincial Civil Court Mediator
- Former Member of the Alberta Arbitration & Mediation Society Corporate Trainer

Currently serving on the Delburne Chamber Commerce (for 3 years)

I stand for truth & transparency, accountability, and working together for the benefit of our ENTIRE community within government. I look forward to participating in the progress of all our futures, and meeting with as many of you as possible to hear your ideas and concerns as I move through the neighborhoods prior to the election.

Hello I'm Kathy Faulk. I am a mother of 4 and a proud Grandmother of 12. My husband Brian and I purchased a home in Delburne in the year 2007.

I was approached by community members and friends who nominated me in the 2007 election and was in by acclamation. Wow, I hit the ground running quickly getting involved in the community in a council capacity and as a volunteer.

Your voice and concerns are as important to me today as they were then. I have been a member of the community for 18 years serving three terms on council.

I take pride in all I do and feel it takes a whole community to come together to build a sustainable today and a prosperous future. Together we are a team, and our vision can become a reality.

I look forward to serving you for a fourth term as your councillor Kathy Faulk

Good day, my name is Andy Folks, and I've been asked to say a few words to help you get to know me better. I've been a proud resident of Delburne since 2007. A few words from those who know me best include: respectful; down to earth; courteous; and blue collar.

My family and I moved from Calgary to return to the small-town environment that I grew up in as an army brat. We truly enjoy the local camping, hunting and fishing, as well as the warmth and friendliness of the people of Delburne.

It's nice to have found our forever home.

Hello, my name is Dustin Gillespie, and I am running for a position on the Delburne Village Council. My wife and I were both born and raised in small communities in southern Alberta. When we moved to Delburne 18 years ago, we immediately knew we had found the right place to raise our family.

I am passionate about volunteering and finding ways to support both new and existing programs that strengthen our community. I currently spend my volunteer time between a few different societies in town including the Community Hall Board, Parent Advisory Council and the Friends of Society. My goal is to listen, take action, and ensure that every voice is heard. I am strongly committed to continuing to build a vibrant, inclusive, and thriving community for all of us.

This is an exciting opportunity for all of us running, and look forward to the outcome on October 20th!

Hi, my name is Trenton Martens. I've lived in Delburne my whole life and went to Delburne Centralized School. I've been married to my wife for 18 years, and together we have one son who means the world to us. Family has always been at the center of my life and is what keeps me grounded.

For close to 20 years, I worked in the oil fields before deciding it was time for a change. That work taught me a lot about relying on others and the importance of teamwork to get through tough jobs. These days, I'm a chef, and I really enjoy being in the kitchen. Cooking gives me a way to be creative while making something that brings people together.

Outside of work, I like to keep things simple. I spend a lot of time outdoors gardening, camping, and fishing—especially when I can share those moments with family.

As a proud owner of a gym for four years in a dedicated bodybuilder for 15 years, I have garnered notable accolades, including this Saskatchewan 1985 in Western Canada Champion 1986 with professional background as a journeyman glazier since 1986 and an upbringing on a Saskatchewan farm.

I have established a happy family life in Delburne and I possess a keen interest in Canadian and local politics remaining well informed and actively engaged. I am always prepared to offer knowledgeable insights. Furthermore, I have a passion for car culture involving restoration mechanics, and modification.

Excited to contribute to Delburne's continued growth and success capitalizing on his existing potential.

Jason Reckseidler is running for a municipal council position. Raised in Delburne, he's a dedicated community advocate with deep roots in the region. Jason holds a Bachelor's degree in politics from Augustana University and an Associate's degree in Media Communications from SAIT. His academic background has equipped him with a strong understanding of governance and public policy, while his media studies have honed his communication skills.

Jason's campaign is centered on community health and development. He is committed to fostering an inclusive environment and addressing local needs. As a candidate, he aims to bring a fresh perspective to the council, focusing on initiatives that support local businesses, enhance public services, and promote community engagement. His passion for Delburne and its future drives his desire to serve its residents.

Current Councillor Raymond Reckseidler is no stranger to politics. Ray is a Lifetime member of the Alberta Urban Municipality Association (AUMA) serving 31 years as Councillor and Mayor for the Village of Delburne. He is a Queen Elizabeth Diamond Jubilee Award winner for Community Programming and a Governor General award winner. Ray also serves as president of the Anthony Henday Historical Society, as a Director for East Parkland Community Futures, and the Delburne Outlaws Senior Hockey team.

During his tenure he supported infrastructure development, new Village office, a larger Drop-In Centre, Fawn Meadows residential subdivision, new and expanded fire hall and library, and establishment of the Delburne Medical clinic.

Ray was employed as a teacher and Principal for Delburne School for many years. Ray will continue to contribute to the community of Delburne that has served his family very well for many years.

Anthony Henday Museum News

Heritage Days held Sept 12 & 13 was a resounding success. A special recognition goes out to the Alberta Government for providing funding under the Alberta Culture Days program. The horse drawn wagon rides were lined up all day. Thanks to Steve Lemon and Keith Nicholson for this. The log sawing contest was very popular as was the antique sock machine demonstration and presentation. Thanks to Wayne and Lois Wooden who organized the aforementioned. The music event held Friday evening at the pavilion, 4-Trax group was terrific, as was James Reckseidler's music on Saturday. Thanks to Ben Collins for assisting with the organization of the tractors, the blacksmith, and machine line shaft demo. Thanks go to Ainsley Walshe for taking on the butter making demo, one less job for me. Judy Chaffin arranged the bake sale once again, thanks to her. A huge thank you to Kerri Dickinson who helped facilitate the event and provided the food for the day. And to Deb Hotvedt who assisted without a break. Thanks to Ryan Nicholson for the rope making demo, Justin Baumgardt the farrier, the wheelwright demo and to the vendors. Thanks to Dwayne and Carol Murray who prepped a new exhibit, and to Byron Lawrence who put together kid's activities and more. Lastly to all the public who attended we appreciate you coming out. A special thanks to Ray Reckseidler who for many years continues to spearhead our group and encourages us to keep moving forward.

In other news, we completed a Casino in Red Deer, and we would like to thank all who came out and worked for us. The night shift is a late night, but I heard no complaints from our volunteers, much appreciated. We are planning more upcoming events such as our annual fall supper as we continue to look towards bigger and better.
